

Art

EDITED
BY EMMA PEARSE

DOT MATRIX Xylor Jane makes paintings that combine outsider art, secret code, channeling otherworldly spirits, and minimalist grids. Each of her finely rendered, highly ordered geometric works involves an elaborate system of elements including binary code, the color spectrum, and numerical palindromes. The results are mesmerizing, intelligent, and just this side of magical (at Canada through March 29).

JERRY SALTZ